

Q&A

Employee Spotlight:

Jenni G.,
Coding Manager

What do you do at KIWI-TEK?

I am a coding manager with KIWI-TEK. Our team currently oversees 6 active client contracts with coding in multiple specialties.

How long have you worked here?

In May of 2022, I will have worked at KIWI-TEK for 14 years.

What makes KIWI-TEK different from other coding companies?

Their flexibility and allowing employees to create their own schedules. The people also makes KIWI-TEK different from other coding companies. I enjoy the relationships I have made here throughout the years.

How has your career grown since starting at the company?

I was hired at KIWI-TEK as a coder, I was then promoted to an assistant manager role and then eventually was promoted to my current role as coding manager.

What advice do you have for new coders joining the field?

My advice for new coders would be to continuously educate yourself, coding is a constantly changing field and it is hard to know everything. It's important to build a community of resources to reach out to when you have questions.

What was your biggest takeaway from COVID-19 as a medical coder?

COVID-19 has proven to me the importance of education, training, and communication to ensure accurate documentation, coding, and denial prevention.

What was your first job?

My first job was in Medicaid auditing.

What do you like to do in your spare time? Any hobbies?

In my spare time, I enjoy spending time with my family and friends. A lot of my spare time is spent watching my kids play various sports.

We are growing! Join a company culture where people are encouraged to ask questions, learn from their peers and above all, enjoy their important role as a medical coder.
